Who are Fujitsu?

Fujitsu is one of the top five ICT providers in the world, with over 5 decades of experience delivering technology solutions to customers around the globe. We work with organisations from all different sectors.

When you pour a cup of tea...

Over a third of the UK's land mass relies on Fujitsu for the safe delivery of clean water.

When you switch on the lights...

We're working with energy companies to help keep the lights on for over 15million UK households and businesses.

When you apply for your mortgage...

Our systems process over £30 billion worth of mortgages in the UK.

When you need a ticket...

Over £2 billion of tickets have been sold at almost 1,000 train stations with our desktop and mobile systems.

When you're at the checkout...

Our mobile engineers make over 17,000 visits a year to keep retail tills ringing.

Fujitsu is behind the technology that is transforming the country...There's a 99% chance that we've met before.
